Item 8.01. Other Events.

On November 19, 2020, the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) notified HighPoint Resources Corporation (the “Company”) that the Company had regained compliance with the NYSE continued listing standard relating to the average closing price of the Company’s shares. As previously disclosed, on March 13, 2020, the Company received notice from the NYSE that it was not in compliance with the NYSE’s continued listing standards as a result of the average closing price of the Company’s common stock being less than $1.00 per share over a consecutive 30 trading-day period. The Company regained compliance after its average closing share price for the 30 trading-day period ending November 19, 2020 was above the NYSE’s minimum requirement of $1.00 per share.

On November 24, 2020, the Company issued a press release announcing the Company has regained compliance with the NYSE’s continued listing standards relating to the average closing price of the Company’s shares. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

As reported on November 10, 2020, the Company received a separate notice from the NYSE that it is no longer in compliance with the NYSE continued listing standards set forth in Section 802.01B of the NYSE’s Listed Company Manual due to the fact that the Company’s average global market capitalization over a consecutive 30 trading-day period was less than $50 million and, at the same time, its stockholders’ equity was less than $50 million. In accordance with NYSE procedures, the Company intends to submit a plan to the NYSE within 45 days of receipt of the notice advising the NYSE of definitive action it has taken, or is taking, to bring it into compliance within 18 months of receipt of the notice. The Company’s common stock will continue to be listed and traded on the NYSE during the applicable cure period under the common stock trading symbol “HPR.”

In accordance with General Instruction B.2 of Form 8-K, the information in this Item shall not be deemed “filed” for the purpose of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, nor shall it be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing.

HighPoint Resources Regains Compliance with NYSE Minimum Price Continued Listing Standard

DENVER – November 24, 2020 – HighPoint Resources Corporation (“we”, “us”, or the “Company”) (NYSE: HPR) today announced that on November 19, 2020, it received written notification from the New York Stock Exchange (the “NYSE”) that it has regained compliance with the NYSE continued listing standard relating to the average closing price of the Company’s shares.

As previously disclosed, on March 13, 2020, the Company received formal notice from the NYSE that it was not in compliance with the NYSE’s continued listing standards as a result of the average closing price of the Company’s common stock being less than $1.00 per share over a consecutive 30 trading-day period. The Company regained compliance after its average closing share price for the 30 trading-day period ending November 19, 2020 was above the NYSE’s minimum requirement of $1.00 per share.

As reported on November 10, 2020, the Company received a separate notice from the NYSE that it is no longer in compliance with the NYSE continued listing standards set forth in Section 802.01B of the NYSE’s Listed Company Manual due to the fact that the Company’s average global market capitalization over a consecutive 30 trading-day period was less than $50 million and, at the same time, its stockholders’ equity was less than $50 million. In accordance with NYSE procedures, the Company intends to submit a plan to the NYSE within 45 days of receipt of the notice advising the NYSE of definitive action it has taken, or is taking, to bring it into compliance within 18 months of receipt of the notice. The Company’s common stock will continue to be listed and traded on the NYSE during the applicable cure period under the common stock trading symbol “HPR.”
